

Provis to showcase technology integration best practices during Proptech Middle East Summit 2019

Dubai, 31st October 2019 – Provis, one of the leading estate management companies in the UAE, will be showcasing its state-of-the-art property management solutions at the 2nd Annual PropTech Middle East Summit 2019 taking place in Dubai.

As a part of Provis’s participation, Dana Awad, Executive Director at Provis, will participate in a session entitled “Utilizing Technology to Drive Property Service Charges Down” where she will present Provis’s experience in utilizing cutting-edge technological solutions to add value to investments and decrease property costs. Dana will also present two of Provis’s best practice case studies revolving around climate based irrigation and Building Management System (BMS) cloud integration.

“We are delighted to be a part of this summit as it provides us with a good opportunity to share our experience around the integration of Proptech to increase efficiencies, reduce operating costs and enhance living experiences of our customers, investors, developers as well as tenants,” said Dana Awad, Executive Director at Provis. “The summit will also bring experts from the industry under one roof to exchange experiences and best practices being adopted across the property sphere and explore new technologies that are revolutionizing the sector,” added Awad.

Furthermore, Provis will demonstrate the features of its online portal at Provis.ae, which represents the first milestone in the company’s digital transformation roadmap. The recently launched portal is a one-step solution that provides a seamless experience for all Provis’s clients by combining all services related to Provis managed communities including booking of services or maintenance requests, viewing of financial statements and payment history, making online payments, upload any required documents, booking of community amenities, classes or events as well as report any issues within their communities or units. Community Members will also be able to connect with the wider community through a live chat function and view live updates and notices in their communities.

Provis applies innovative solutions and technology to add tangible value to clients as well as their properties at every stage of the property lifecycle. From sales and leasing to property consultancy and management, owners' association consultancy and management and clubhouse and lifestyle management, Provis manages over 28,500 units across both Property Management and Owners Association and has sold and leased thousands of properties across the Emirates.

The 2nd Annual Proptech Middle East Summit 2019 is taking place at Habtoor Grand Resort Dubai Marina from 4-5 November 2019.
